

COLLEGE

Students, faculty & staff at educational institutions receiving federal funds.

Who does it apply to?

Sexual harassment and sexual misconduct as defined by Title IX and institutional policies.

What is the scope of conduct?

Violating the institution's policy against sexual harassment and sexual misconduct.

What is someone accused of?

Provide support and assistance to the complainant. Community Safety. Addressing the conduct, remedying its effects, and preventing its recurrence.

What are the goals?

Resolutions, remedies and sanctions.

What are the outcomes?

CRIMINAL

All states and all citizens.

Conduct as defined by the state's criminal statutes.

Violating the state's criminal statutes relating to sexual assault, stalking, domestic violence, and harassment.

Community safety and maintenance of norms, punishment, and/or retribution.

Verdicts, sentencing and restitution.